A: Change this: To this: The inside of single and double quotes will be treated as one character string instead of being a string of multiple characters. out with an argument about why the public is so damn stupid about such things. And that is because the world is pretty damn simple when you boil it all down. And when you boil it down, the world is basically just people acting out of some basic desires, generally in reaction to other people who are acting out of other basic desires. I still argue that more and more people are waking up to reality and so the world of the future might look more and more like a more beautiful and noble place. But I think people like Arx Libertatis are starting to just plain see how much of a dream the world we currently live in really is. In fact, what we call "reality" is, in fact, a dream. At the very least, it is a very weird one. Are you friends with the Idiot Savant on Facebook? No offense but I'm not buying your special teams coach talk. For someone who is supposedly devoted to the game like you, you sure don't seem to give the coaches much credit. For example, why would anyone think the Rams would be a better team in the playoffs with Mike Martz as their offensive coordinator? He's had a couple good years but to have him in charge of the Rams offense? What makes you think he is a better coordinator than Shanahan or Lovie Smith? C'mon man...we're beating a dead horse here. I think the defense is going to 82157476af
